Highway Patrol Report

Col. Floyd Mann, Alabama's Director of Public Safety, stated that from 6:00 p.m., Friday through 12 Midnight Sunday, the Alabama Highway Patrol investigated 172 rural traffic accidents. In these accidents 84 persons were injured and 5 were killed. The fatalities occurred in the following counties: 2 in Winston and 1 each in Crenshaw, Escambia and Talladega.

This brings the number of people killed in Alabama this year to 404 compared with 368 killed during the same period last year. This is an increase of 36 fatalities.

Capt. W. A. Hornsby, Dothan District Commander, stated that the eight county Dothan district troopers investigated 14 accidents with 9 injuries and no fatalities. The traffic law violations causing these accidents were excessive speed - driving while intoxicated - inattention and wrong side of road.

38 arrests and 126 warnings were issued for these violations. The Dothan District has 43 fatalities thus far this year compared with 39 at this time last year. District wise we are 4.

Coffee County investigated 3 accidents with 3 injuries and no fatalities. So far this year 4 people have died in Coffee County traffic accidents compared with 5 at this time last year. In this county we have a decrease of 1.

Death Claims Army Pilot In Vietnam

U. S. Army Captain Franklin J. Hiner, 29 years old, husband of the former Cleo Roberts, social editor of The Elba Clipper, died June 25th as the results of injuries received in a mid-air collision while serving as aircraft commander of military helicopters on combat operation in South Vietnam.

The crash happened early Tuesday morning as the helicopters were ferrying troops of the Royal Thai Army on a combat assault, 16 miles east-southeast of Saigon.

This brings the number of people killed in Alabama this year to 404 compared with 368 killed during the same period last year. This is an increase of 36 fatalities.

IT'S THAT TIME again in Elba. That is time to elect a mayor and council. At this time, Monday morning, there are two candidates for every place, and that gives the voters a choice with the present administration a chance to tell, "I'm about it at the polls, and it also gives voters the opportunity to keep the present administration if they think they have done a good job."

It is absolutely impossible for any administration to please everybody. This administration has not done it nor will the next one do it, but I find no quarrel with this administration. They have done a good job and probably at times under difficult situations. The next administration, if there should be a change, will do a good job, I have all confidence, so it looks like Elba is going to do right regardless of the decision of the voters.

When we came to Elba January 1, 1962, and before this administration was elected, Elba was on the go, it continued after this administration was elected and I have confidence it will continue to progress after this election.

Being connected with other towns I can see Elba's progress probably more than the most of you. But Elba has made the most progress the past several years of any town I know about anywhere. I am convinced that it continues to make this progress and to continue to grow.

I have all confidence that we can work with the next administration, be it the present one re-elected or a change. Elba is a wonderful city and it will remain that way as long as everybody continues to work together. It is superior to many towns of like size and the people in it are wonderful people. It is the people and their attitude that has made Elba the wonderful town that it is.

HOLIDAYS? It seems that we are having an extra helping of them the past several weeks. But I'm beginning to enjoy them. Do you suppose I will get like some of the laborers next month who want to work only a few hours a week?

Well, it might be fun, but I don't think I would enjoy being idle. I could get some work done in the yard and the five-acre garden I have started. I'm hoping we'll all be back to normal next week, but I don't expect much until September and school time again.

I HAD PLANNED to go to six or seven weeks traveling in the late summer and fall, but there is a possibility that I will not have that privilege. One of our employees in Elba when I have depended on so much received the awful news last week that his wife had died. He had lost her husband in Vietnam. A lot will depend on how she gets along and as to when she will be able to return to work.

Our plan had been that I would make the trip to Nassau with a group of Alabama businessmen and women next week and then Mack and I would start on the trip of several thousand miles, going to Yellowstone National Park, Grand Canyon, and many other places of interest, then visit his daughter in Los Angeles, and on the return trip visit a number of other places of interest. During the time we would be free to stay as long as we liked in any particular place and would not be traveling in any schedule as to time or place. We would be free to spend several days in any particular place and to investigate any particular interest.

That was our plan but plans have a way of getting upset. There is a possibility that the western trip will be delayed until a later date, probably in the fall.

MOST POLITICIANS follow "segregation" and all that stuff when it is popular but when they see a possibility that it would be to their advantage to be soft on the subject you can just see them falling apart in an effort to change over without it being so obvious. But change they will when it is an advantage. Suddenly the politicians get mighty interested in "all races and colors."

Do you remember how the majority of the people of the south were so favorable to Lyndon Baines Johnson during the Democratic Convention when John Kennedy was nominated Johnson was a friend to the south, many said. It seems that being a friend to the South is being against the Negro and for segregation, according to the opinion of many.

But Lyndon Baines Johnson changed when it was necessary for him to change. Now we see other politicians changing. Why not if that is an advantage. Politicians are politicians regardless of the South - even when they themselves are from the South.

But times are changing and anyone who can't change with them will be lonesome.

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE SUNDAY

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: 1) For his own sake; 2) For his children's sake; 3) For the sake of his community and nation; 4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The carefree may call this entertainment. The discouraged might call it life!

We feel often as though we're not getting anywhere. Many of us recall a long succession of up and down—coming in a vicious circle.

To get anywhere, our life must have direction! Not just ambition, mind you. Ambition is simply a restless yearning to reach another plateau.

Direction is a course of forward progress. It may lead to one's ambition... or beyond. And sometimes it bypasses an unworthy ambition to bring within our reach a worthy goal.

Set a time in your week when you will forego both entertainment and ambition—to insure for body, mind and soul a right direction. Begin next Sunday morning!

PEAS FOR FREEZING
Coffee County growers have several hundred acres of the Mississippi Silverskin variety of peas which are maturing now. This project goes far beyond the animal since it also involves the protection and promotion of human health, through the inspection and improvement of animal health to safeguard our meat and poultry supply.

Training opportunities, local resource people, and the 4-H veterinary science project literature all provide information to help the leaders inform their 4-H'ers. Dan J. Presley has information on this.

The 4-H veterinary science project is available to Coffee County 4-H Club members and is designed to help rural and urban boys and girls to better understand their animals' health and possible means of preventing diseases.

C. H. Trammell says the Lilliston gets them all

C. H. Trammell (right) with L. K. Newlin, breeder of Ken's Giant, world's largest peanut.

"I've grown about every type of peanut there is," reports Mr. Trammell, "from Ken's Giant to Spanish, and I've used the Lilliston 1500 to pick them. This combine will pick any of them and get them all, green or dry, in most any condition." "And," Mr. Trammell adds, "you don't have to stop to adjust the Lilliston, either."

Overwhelming testimony proves the Lilliston first in the field.

Brockton plus other nurserymen and individuals in the county are propagating African violets. African violets can be a beautiful addition to your indoor plants and fortunately you can grow your own. Ronald Shumack, ornamental horticulture specialist at Auburn, gives these suggestions: Cut a firm, mature leaf with one or two inches of its petiole (stem) attached, and place the stem in moist sand, or a mixture of sand and peat. The roots should form in four to six weeks, then a small cluster of leaves will appear. When your violet is well rooted, transplant it to a container four inches deep. Six to eight months later you should have a flowering plant. Water only when dry to the touch and keep out of direct sunlight.

Five Steps To Producing Coastal Bermuda Hay

There are no short cuts to producing top quality Coastal bermudagrass hay. Four simple rules for producing such hay are: 1. Fertilize it well, cut it often, cure it quickly and store it properly, says J. R. Speed, Coffee County Extension farm agent. Coastal bermudagrass is one of the highest yielding crops, often producing as much as six to eight tons per acre, Speed adds. But, the amount of crude protein in the hay depends greatly on the amount of fertilizer used and cutting intervals.

The agent suggests these things to produce better quality Coastal bermudagrass hay: 1. Remove old stubble in late February or early March. Burning helps control diseases, insects and weeds, but do it with caution. 2. Soil test, then lime and fertilize according to the lab's recommendations. 3. Make first cutting when the grass is 15 to 18 inches high and the next three cuttings at monthly intervals.

bor Charles Gilmer is back in Viet Nam for his second tour of duty. Gilmer graduated from Auburn with honors in 1956 in agriculture. I am constantly reminded of the sacrifices he is making. Another young man, L. T. John Parker is in Viet Nam on his first tour of duty. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Parker of Route 3, Elba. John was a 4-H'er in Fairview and later in Kinston. He graduated from Auburn and made the Dean's List on several occasions. There are thousands of other Coffee County young men who have already served in Viet Nam and others in training. I am reminded of what they are doing for me every day.

Two out of every three cars sold in the United States every year are used cars.

Peanut experts prefer Polyrain

You get more peanuts per acre with Polyrain for two reasons. First, Polyrain wards off the major disease of peanuts, leafspot. So more peanuts survive to maturity. Secondly, Polyrain is safe for plants and safe to work with. Polyrain protected peanuts thrive all season to produce high yields of sound mature kernels. See your local dealer for Polyrain. A larger harvest will be in the bag.

COFFEE NEWS & CHAT

BY SARA E. HUTCHINSON

FREEZING PEACHES
Several homemakers have called in the last few days asking for information on freezing peaches.

Peaches and other light colored fruits have to be pretreated to keep them from turning dark when thawed.

One method of pretreatment is to use salt, vinegar and water. To one gallon of water, add 2 tablespoons of clear, distilled vinegar. Don't let fruit stay in this mixture more than 20 minutes. Rinse fruit before adding sugar and stir.

It is best to peel only one or two quarts at one time. There are other preparations on the market which you can buy to preserve fruit from turning dark.

One point I'd like to remind you of now is how to thaw your fruits later on. Thaw fruits in their original container in the refrigerator. This also helps to keep them from turning dark.

EGG CARTONS
A new look in egg cartons is appearing in the supermarkets in our area. This new look is made of plastic. This will let you see through the carton.

Other changes include cartons of various materials which package two and one-half or three dozen eggs.

Speaking of eggs reminds me of the question so often asked about taste of brown-shelled eggs and white-shelled eggs. The shell color is determined by the breed of the hen and doesn't affect the taste, nutritive value, flavor, or cooking performance of the egg.

4-H'ERS
I enjoyed having Sandra Bowman, Mt. Pleasant Community, and Rhonda Killingsworth, New Hope Community, visit my office recently. Both of these 4-H'ers are county dairy code winners — Sandra the junior and Rhonda the senior.

Both of these 4-H'ers will be attending district elimination in Auburn next month.

Funeral Services District President To Held For Fred Folsom

Graveside services were held at 3 p.m. Sunday in Elba for Fred Folsom, 70, a brother of former Gov. James E. Folsom. The elder Folsom died Saturday after a long illness.

A resident of Elba, he had been in poor health for several months and recently suffered a stroke. He died in a Montgomery hospital.

Folsom was a retired businessman and during the 1950s, supervised the federal government's seed loan program in Alabama. He was a familiar figure at the state capitol during his brother's two terms as governor.

Survivors besides the ex-governor include two other brothers, Cecil Folsom of Montgomery and Mrs. Thelma Clark of Elba.

An "John Doe, one-year-old son of Mrs. Mae Johnson, 22, was the victim. Mrs. Johnson was admitted to Beard's Hospital in Troy.

Michael Henley, 18, was the other driver injured in the collision. His condition was considered "fair" at the time of his transfer from Beard's to University Hospital in Birmingham.

The collision occurred about 4:45 p.m. 5.8 miles south of Troy on Alabama Highway 87 in the Spring Hill community.

Rabies Clinic Is Scheduled For Saturday In Elba

Hamm, reminded the public this week that Saturday, July 13, he will be giving rabies shots from seven until eleven a.m. at the Elba High School and from twelve until two at the Mulberry Heights School and from two-thirty until four-thirty at the Kingston Depot.

BAPTIST YOUTH CHOR TO SING FOR METHODIST

Brewer Appoints Committee For Cancer Fund

Governor Albert Brewer has appointed a Coffee County Steering Committee for the Crusade of the Lurleen B. Wallace Memorial Cancer Hospital Fund.

Governor Brewer is serving as Honorary Chairman for the Crusade of the Lurleen B. Wallace Memorial Cancer Hospital, which is spearheading this drive seeking to raise $5 million with which to build and equip one of the nation's finest cancer hospitals.

"I can think of no more fitting tribute to Governor Lurleen, who battled so courageously against this dread disease, I am sure she would be proud of the efforts of all Alabamians to build this hospital."

Governor Brewer said that each County organization set as its fundraising goal the collection of the sum equal to $1 per capita so that the total would at least equal the 1960 census for the county.

A county meeting will be held in the near future to make final plans for a permanent organization in Coffee County.

In the meantime anyone who wishes to contribute to this very worthwhile project may send it to any member of the steering committee listed above.

Lucile McKee, publisher of The Elba Clipper, left this morning (Thursday) for Nassau with a group of Alabama newspapermen and women. She has as her guests for the trip two of her sisters, Mrs. Hester Morgan of Andalusia and Miss Libby Kimbro of Kingston.

Alabama journalists and their guests will get a firsthand look at fun spots around the Bahamas Islands when they meet for the annual summer meeting of the Alabama Press Association later today.

Nearly 150 members and associate members are making the trip to the Bahamas Islands. Two chartered aircraft will board passengers at strategic points around the state and are flying non-stop to Nassau's International Airport.

The press group and guests will be at the famous Sheraton British Colonial Hotel for the four days in Nassau. All of Nassau's excitement and colorful tourist attractions are just steps away from the Sheraton British Colonial.

One group is leaving Montgomery this morning at 9 o'clock and will stop in Mobile for nearly an hour to pick up journalists from that part of the state. The trip will continue to Nassau non-stop and is scheduled to arrive at 2:30 this afternoon. Another flight will leave Huntsville at 7:30 picking up in Birmingham and continuing non-stop to Nassau.

Entertainment today will help to identify and prosecute drivers who habitually violate traffic laws. Points will be assessed on the violator's drivers record based on the nature of his violation.

The Governor pointed out that a driver who has his license suspended under the point system can request an administrative hearing in his home county, and if he is dissatisfied with the results, can appeal to his local Circuit Court.

"I am wholeheartedly committed," the Governor said, "to whatever steps may be necessary in reducing the number of senseless, tragic accidents on Alabama's highways. I know that the concerned driving citizens and the thousands of responsible, safe drivers in Alabama want to join with Colonel Floyd Mann and his State Troopers in helping to reduce the traffic toll."

Brewer Plans To Crack Down On Traffic Violators

A concerted campaign to reduce Alabama's highway traffic accident toll has been announced by Governor Albert Brewer. In issuing his first Executive Order as Governor, he announced that a "point system" is being established by the State Public Safety Department in a move to crack down on habitual violators of the state's traffic laws.

Speaking at his weekly press conference, the Governor said, "The first step in reducing traffic accidents is enforcement. This, we intend to do with every means available."

Governor Brewer continued, "It is simply not fair for innocent and law-abiding drivers to be killed and maimed by irresponsible and reckless drivers who crack down on the rights of others."

The new point system, according to the Governor

Fire Gets Warehouse

A fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed Sawyer Candy Company last Tuesday night, July 2nd. The fire was fought by a combined force of the Elba, Enterprise and Opp fire departments. Owner, Sam Sawyer, estimated his loss at $250,000 more than was covered by insurance.

The warehouse began selling merchandise on Monday morning following hurried trips to various places. They are operating from the old warehouse that is on the west side of the building destroyed by fire. Sawyer states that he will not rebuild the burned out building for his own use but would consider building a plant for some interested industry. He had nothing but praise for the firemen who put in long hours fighting the hot blaze and to the host of people who offered supplies, labor, trucks, and many other items necessary to get the business operating again.

Fire Chief Charles Cox was well pleased with the cooperation of the public in staying clear of the fire fighters as they went about their work throughout the night and for the food and drinks supplied by the bystanders.
